

Tune-Up Flea Market is back at the New England Wireless & Steam Museum in East Greenwich, RI Saturday, July 22, 2023 9:00 am – 3:00 pm

Featuring all kinds of antique and modern radios and related equipment: consumer, ham, and military. Electronic test equipment of all kinds also welcome. Admission ticket includes tours of all museum buildings. Staff on hand to give guided tours.

Vendors $25, includes 2 adult admissions. Bring your own table or table rental $10 (call* ahead to rent table, we have very few). Vendors sign up (optional) or request info: info@newsm.org. Regular Admission $15 per adult, $7 per child (age 6-17) under 6 free, NARM/Museum Members free. Food & Drink options available for purchase. Pre-Registration is not required since we have unlimited room in our front field. This is an outdoor event. Tailgating is welcome! Park with your wares. Separate parking area for non-vendors.

(*401-885-0545, Thursdays, 9 am – 12 pm. Saturdays, June & July, 9 am-3 pm)

From South: Route 95 N. Take exit 19 and turn right onto Hopkins Hill Rd. Drive 5.4 mi. to Go 2.4 mi. & turn left onto Bates Trail. Go 1.2 mi. & continue onto Frenchtown Rd. Destination on left. Location: 1300 Frenchtown Road • East Greenwich • RI

From North: Route 95 South towards Providence, from Prov. go 11.7 mi and keep left at fork to RI-4 S, follow signs for North Kingstown. Go 2.3 mi. & use 2nd from the right lane to RI-402/RI-403/Frenchtown Rd exit toward Quonset. Keep left at fork, follow signs for RI-402 W & merge onto RI-402 w/Frenchtown Rd. Continue to follow Frenchtown Rd. destination on left.

New England Wireless & Steam Museum: <https://newsm.org>

